Coach John Leaney

Coach of the 1998 NCAA Division III national championship women's team, John Leaney has built the women's soccer program at Macalester College into a power. This is Coach Leaney's 21st year as Macalester's women's coach. He was Mac's head men's soccer coach for 20 years before handing those duties over. A former soccer player and physical education teacher in England, Leaney's first college appointment was at the University of California—San Diego, where he built the women's program into a national power, taking them to the first Final Four in 1986.

The Macalester women's soccer team has gone 285-73-31 in 20 seasons under Leaney for a winning percentage of .772. Macalester captured the MIAC championship in 1992, 1997, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, 2004 and 2005. The Scots have lost just 23 MIAC matches in two decades under Leaney.

The 1998 NCAA Division III Coach of the Year, Leaney has been honored numerous times as conference and region coach of the year. He has developed 13 All-Americans and seven conference MVPs. Under Leaney, the Scots have made 15 appearances in the NCAA playoffs. With 304 wins, he is ranked fourth all-time among active Division III coaches. He has been honored as MIAC Men's Coach of the Year six times and in 1990 and 1997 was named West Region Coach of the Year. The Scots compiled an impressive 236-89-36 slate under Leaney for a winning percentage of .704.
